

Chest Campaign Receives Cordial Welcome By People

Total of $900 Already Pledged Equals Same Amount After First Week Last Year

Incomplete reports available at the end of the first week of the Community Chest campaign indicate that a total of about $900 has been subscribed in pledges, which is about the same rate of progress which was noted in former years.

The Chest workers report that there has been a very cordial reception of the appeal on the part of the people of the town and college, indicating that the public spirit is in steady and convincing approval of the work that has been so effectively carried on by the Community Chest.

The workers wish to urge everyone to complete your pledge within another week so the job can be closed up and finally reported to the Chest Board.

The Times was not able to get for this week a summarized report showing the percentages of members of the various groups who have already pledged to the Chest. We are assured we will have it for next week.

Meanwhile, every group is urged to make an effort to show 100 per cent of its members pledging to the Chest in time to get in this summary report.

Mr. Kelly Reports On Chest Audit

To the Board of Directors of the Montevallo Community Chest:
At the request of your 1938-39 Vice-Chairman I have made minute examination of the records of the 1938-39 Vice-Chairman and Treasurer, and respectfully report that in my opinion the Chest is doing a good job of the work for which it was organized.

The total subscriptions for year 1938-39 were found to be $1,779.00 and of this amount $1,705.00 has been paid. I found vouchers totaling $1,326.68, which represents expenditures for all purposes, leaving a balance of $378.32 in the bank.

This amount was verified with the books of the bank and found to be correct. It is noted that there are two bank accounts, representing the periods of 1937-38 and 1938-39. I respectfully recommend that the two accounts be consolidated so as to avoid confusion in bookkeeping.

In conclusion, I wish to thank Mrs. Hood and Mr. Holcomb for their assistance in making this study. Respectfully submitted,
J. P. KELLY

Outstanding Students Chosen At College

For the fifth consecutive year, the Executive Board of Alabama College this week chose the twelve outstanding students who this year will be featured in the 1940 edition of "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities."

Those chosen for this honor listing are Misses Birdie Margaret Moorer, Georgiana; Bettie Archibald, Evergreen; Jean Letson, Columbiana; Elouise Peck, Homewood; Celia Methvin, Roanoke; Martha Terry, Greensboro; Mildred Clotfelter, Birmingham; Frances Scarbrough, Eastaboga; Mary Diamond, Birmingham; Barbara Peck, Hartselle; Elizabeth Stanley, Birmingham; Eva Love Wyatt, Decatur.

These students were selected on the basis of four qualities: Character, leadership, scholarship, and potentialities of future usefulness to business and society. A short biography of each girl will appear in the publication.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Killingsworth and Marvin, Jr., of Montgomery, and Celia of Alabama College were guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Reid over the week end.

NEGRO MINISTER SETS A RECORD

The fifty-second annual session of the Bibb County Baptist Association (Negro) was recently held at Mt. Olive Church, at Keystone. Rev. L. H. Woolley, secretary, reports that it was one of the most successful assemblies in the history of the body.

Rev. J. S. Prentice, of Aldrich, is Moderator of the association. He is 81 years old, and has served continuously as Moderator for 34 years.

Placement Bureau Of College Sets High Record

The record compiled by the Placement Bureau of Alabama College covering the 1939 graduates, is the best which that office has ever made. Under direction of Dr. A. C. Anderson, professor of secondary education, the bureau secured places for all those applying for its aid with the exception of those students who were married after filing applications or who elected to go into graduate work.

Mr. Anderson's office has kept careful figures covering the past decade, and from these figures several thought-provoking trends are apparent. A striking fact adduced from the yearly reports is that fewer girls nowadays are preparing to be teachers. In 1930, 98 per cent of the graduating class had qualified to teach. By 1939 this had dropped to 86 per cent of the graduating class.

The largest number of those placed this year was in home economics, in which there was a total of 36. The second largest number was in English with 14, followed by secretarial science with 13, and history with 11. The fields of art, foreign languages, speech, mathematics, physical education, science and music accounted for the remainder of those placed.

Unsolicited, the bureau this year received 276 requests for high school teachers and 56 requests for elementary teachers. As a result, the 102 teaching graduates hold posts in 54 of Alabama's 67 counties.

The Placement Bureau reports that it receives three times as many requests for teachers as it is able to fill.

A. A. U. W. And Business Women Addressed By Professor Martin

On Monday evening, October 23, members of the American Association of University Women and the Business and Professional Women's Club held a joint meeting in Calkins Hall with Professor Roscoe C. Martin, professor of political science at the University of Alabama, as guest speaker.

Professor Martin proved to be one of the most interesting speakers heard on the campus this year, particularly so because of the timeliness of his subject, "Major Changes Wrought in Alabama Government by the Present Administration."

Professor Martin prefaced his remarks with an expression of his appreciation of the interest which women are beginning to take in affairs of government, for he believes that it is time that both men and women are becoming more concerned with government. During the last six years, he says, government has grown by such leaps and bounds that it has become the biggest business in the United States. There is no longer any business which even approaches government in magnitude.

In discussing the government of Alabama, Professor Martin first pointed out some of the things which seemed to be wrong with it

Missionary Society Holds Regular Business Meeting

The Methodist Missionary Society held its regular monthly business meeting at the parsonage Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mrs. J. P. Kelly, president, was in charge of the meeting.

The song, "What a Friend We Have in Jesus," was used to open the meeting, after which Rev. J. M. Shores conducted the devotional, reading as his scripture lesson the first chapter of First Corinthians, and using as his theme for his inspirational message the 23rd verse, "But we preach Christ, and Him crucified."

This was the first time that Brother Shores had attended the missionary meeting, and having listened to his earnest message, every member realized the true meaning of membership in the missionary society. It is hoped that each one present resolved in her heart to be a better member. It is the earnest wish of the society that Rev. Shores visit the meeting more often.

Mrs. Kelly presided over the business meeting, during which reports were given by the chairmen and superintendents of departments.

There were three members of the newly organized society in Wilton present. The local members were happy to have these visitors, and wish for them the best success in their society.

At the conclusion of the business meeting the group was dismissed with the watchword.

Hon. Robert H. Mangum, of Birmingham, director of the publicity department of Alabama Power Company, will be the guest speaker. The hour of the program has not been finally determined.

The Improved Order of Red Men is sponsoring a public picnic and all-day celebration, which is expected to bring a large gathering of visitors. Public speeches and patriotic demonstrations will feature this program.

The American Legion Auxiliary met last Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. M. P. Jeter, with Mrs. P. D. Pendleton presiding over the meeting.

Following the pledge to the flag, the "Star-Spangled Banner" was sung, with Mrs. Helen Clayton at the piano. The chaplain, Mrs. Jeter, led in prayer.

Mrs. Pendleton conducted the business meeting, during which the Americanism chairman reported that she had distributed "Flag Codes" in the schools. It is the earnest desire of the American Legion Auxiliary that the youth of Montevallo learn the proper method of showing respect to our flag.

At the conclusion of the business meeting, the group was delightfully entertained by Montevallo's most versatile citizen, Mr. W. J. Kennerly, who kept the members laughing from the time he began until he finished. Everyone who has heard Mr. Kennerly tell stories knows what an interesting entertainer he is.

During the social half hour, the hostess served a delightful salad plate to the members and two guests, Mrs. Helen Clayton and Mr. Kennerly.

Waterworks and Sewer Plants Built by PWA Assistance

Regional Director Harry A. Wortham today reported three-quarters of the total waterworks and sewer improvements built in Alabama during the past six years were accomplished with Public Works Administration aid.

In the period 1933-39 PWA helped construction of 63 projects valued $7,414,813, Wortham said.

The State Department of Public Health notified Wortham that total waterworks and sewer construction amounted to $9,920,846 worth of new and improvements to existing projects for the six-year period.

T. H. Milford, assistant sanitary engineer, Bureau of Sanitation in the Health Department, itemized 144 improvements all told. Of these, 29 projects valued $943,536 were built without federal aid.

Health Department figures showed 74.7 per cent aided by PWA, 9.3 per cent aided by WPA, 6.5 per cent done with city finances alone. These figures credited the new Federal Works Agency and its two administrations — PWA and WPA — with 84 per cent of the work, Wortham said.

Approximately two and one-half million dollars went into payrolls, and five and one-half million dollars went to purchase materials for the PWA projects, Wortham said.

State records showed that in addition to 63 projects built with PWA help, another 45 were constructed with WPA aid, 29 were wholly financed by municipal governments and seven were erected with TVA assistance, Wortham said.

"Although PWA has helped to build the lion's share of these projects the demand for health measures, fire protection, and sanitation afforded by water and sewer systems still remains," Wortham said. "Many applications for aid were returned to towns and cities unanswered because of a lack of funds."

PWA has returned applications for 34 projects valued at $3,409,764, he said.

A list of projects erected during the six-year period in Chilton, Bibb and Shelby Counties with PWA help follows:

Clanton—Improvements and extensions to existing waterworks system, including tanks and pumping station, $77,271.

Montevallo—Filtration plant, $54,000.

Wilsonville—New waterworks system, including water tank, $20,000.

Wilton—New waterworks system, including water tank, $30,909.

West Blocton — New waterworks system, $22,000.

DANGER!! Submarine!!

AS LONG AS the submarine is able to remain hidden under water, it menaces both shipping and the surface navies whose job is that of sweeping danger from the seas. Bring the "sub" to the surface, and it is no match for surface warcraft.

ALABAMA HAS FOUND A WAY to bring to the surface the few "jook joints" and "honky-tonks" whose submarine tactics, under cover of a State beer permit, have been a menace to public decency and a legitimate industry which annually pays more than $4,500,000 in wages to Alabamians.

A DETERMINED INDUSTRY is working hand in hand with Alabama's aggressive ABC Board in the drive against these "submarine" marauders. You can help—by patronizing only reputable establishments in which conditions are as wholesome as beer itself.

Public Squirrel Hunt In National Forest

Permits for the big squirrel hunt in the Black Warrior National Forest November 1-25 are now being issued through the office of the U. S. Forest Ranger at Decatur. Those who wish to secure permits should write Thomas R. Wilson, U. S. Forest Service, Decatur, or the State Conservation Department, Montgomery, for applications. Only 500 permits will be issued at $1 for the squirrel hunt. The State Conservation Department and the U. S. Forest Service are cooperating in the hunt. All permit holders will be entitled to hunt on any or all of the 25 days of the hunt. Game warden and forest rangers report a plentiful crop of squirrels on the 150,000-acre preserve, and a successful hunt is anticipated.

In addition to the squirrel hunt, the state and federal agencies will conduct a public bow and arrow deer hunt on Nov. 27-Dec. 2. Only 50 permits will be issued for the bow and arrow hunt, while 900 permits will be available for the regular deer hunt.

Alabama farm women are really becoming bed conscious—what with mattresses and studio couches. We wonder if folks who call us a sleepy and lazy people will make something of that? Of the 1,100,000 young men and women who graduated from high schools in the United States in 1939, approximately 400,000 have entered college this fall.

Waterworks and Sewer Plants Built by PWA Assistance

Regional Director Harry A. Wortham today reported three-quarters of the total waterworks and sewer improvements built in Alabama during the past six years were accomplished with Public Works Administration aid.

In the period 1933-39 PWA helped construction of 63 projects valued $7,414,813, Wortham said.

The State Department of Public Health notified Wortham that total waterworks and sewer construction amounted to $9,920,846 worth of new and improvements to existing projects for the six-year period.

T. H. Milford, assistant sanitary engineer, Bureau of Sanitation in the Health Department, itemized 144 improvements all told. Of these, 29 projects valued $943,536 were built without federal aid.

Health Department figures showed 74.7 per cent aided by PWA, 9.3 per cent aided by WPA, 6.5 per cent done with city finances alone. These figures credited the new Federal Works Agency and its two administrations — PWA and WPA — with 84 per cent of the work, Wortham said.

Approximately two and one-half million dollars went into payrolls, and five and one-half million dollars went to purchase materials for the PWA projects, Wortham said.

State records showed that in addition to 63 projects built with PWA help, another 45 were constructed with WPA aid, 29 were wholly financed by municipal governments and seven were erected with TVA assistance, Wortham said.

"Although PWA has helped to build the lion's share of these projects the demand for health measures, fire protection, and sanitation afforded by water and sewer systems still remains," Wortham said. "Many applications for aid were returned to towns and cities unanswered because of a lack of funds."

PWA has returned applications for 34 projects valued at $3,409,764, he said.

A list of projects erected during the six-year period in Chilton, Bibb and Shelby Counties with PWA help follows:

Clanton—Improvements and extensions to existing waterworks system, including tanks and pumping station, $77,271.

Montevallo—Filtration plant, $54,000.

Wilsonville—New waterworks system, including water tank, $20,000.

Wilton—New waterworks system, including water tank, $30,909.

West Blocton — New waterworks system, $22,000.

DANGER!! Submarine!!

AS LONG AS the submarine is able to remain hidden under water, it menaces both shipping and the surface navies whose job is that of sweeping danger from the seas. Bring the "sub" to the surface, and it is no match for surface warcraft.

ALABAMA HAS FOUND A WAY to bring to the surface the few "jook joints" and "honky-tonks" whose submarine tactics, under cover of a State beer permit, have been a menace to public decency and a legitimate industry which annually pays more than $4,500,000 in wages to Alabamians.

A DETERMINED INDUSTRY is working hand in hand with Alabama's aggressive ABC Board in the drive against these "submarine" marauders. You can help—by patronizing only reputable establishments in which conditions are as wholesome as beer itself.

Public Squirrel Hunt In National Forest

Permits for the big squirrel hunt in the Black Warrior National Forest November 1-25 are now being issued through the office of the U. S. Forest Ranger at Decatur. Those who wish to secure permits should write Thomas R. Wilson, U. S. Forest Service, Decatur, or the State Conservation Department, Montgomery, for applications. Only 500 permits will be issued at $1 for the squirrel hunt. The State Conservation Department and the U. S. Forest Service are cooperating in the hunt. All permit holders will be entitled to hunt on any or all of the 25 days of the hunt. Game warden and forest rangers report a plentiful crop of squirrels on the 150,000-acre preserve, and a successful hunt is anticipated.

In addition to the squirrel hunt, the state and federal agencies will conduct a public bow and arrow deer hunt on Nov. 27-Dec. 2. Only 50 permits will be issued for the bow and arrow hunt, while 900 permits will be available for the regular deer hunt.

Cabins and all accommodations, including free firewood for cabin renters, will be available, he said. Only concessions such as restaurants will be closed. The five parks open are Gulf, Chewacla, Cheaha, Monte Sano, and DeSoto.

Alabama farm women are really becoming bed conscious—what with mattresses and studio couches. We wonder if folks who call us a sleepy and lazy people will make something of that? Etna McGough, state home demonstration agent, says women have decided to use more of their own cotton and also to make farm homes more attractive and pleasant.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Editor, Montevallo Times:

Most of our Montevallo teachers are working hard to make a school program that will help our children study better ways of real living. I'm very glad about this. I want to express my thanks to the teachers who are doing this. They shall have my support. My neighbors feel much the same about this.

However, we are forced to notice that all teachers do not seem to understand the purpose of such a school. A number of children have been terribly and unnecessarily embarrassed because their parents could not possibly pay all of the fees these teachers are supposed to collect. For instance, one child was required to sit in the back of the room and was taken "out of the high section" because she could not pay all of these fees. The girl is heartbroken. She does not want to return to school. I don't blame her. I happen to know that this girl's parents could not possibly have paid the fees requested. Would a really sincere teacher punish, in this humiliating way, a little girl who already is troubled with misfortune? Other boys and girls are frequently embarrassed by being unable to pay other fees. Surely one of the first responsibilities of any teacher is to see that children are not hurt in this way.

Of course, the fault lies partly in the failure of the State of Alabama to provide free textbooks and supplies. Every person who loves democracy should work for the day when all children of our state will be assured of school books and supplies regardless of home circumstances.

In the meantime, is it too much for parents to expect teachers to be humane and refrain from penalizing and embarrassing children who, through no fault of their own, cannot pay fees?

We who maintain a democratic society pay the salaries of teachers. Is it too much to expect all of them to be democratic? Myself and some of my neighbors really want to know about this.

A PARENT.

GIRL SCOUTS

Girl Scout Week this year, October 29 to November 4, includes seven service days during which various program activities will be presented in public demonstrations throughout the nation. This event, which is an annual one to commemorate the birthday of Gorgon Lowe, founder of the movement, on October 31, always opens on Sunday preceding the date.

Montevallo Scouts will attend church Sunday in uniform. They plan to go in a body, accompanied by leaders, to the Methodist Church.

Local Scouts may attend the address given by Mrs. Roosevelt in Birmingham Sunday at 3 o'clock for the small cost of 25c. This courtesy has been accorded all Scouts.

The Birmingham Girl Scouts will form a guard of honor for the speaker, who is national honorary president of Girl Scouts.

On the afternoon of October 24, a group of Calera Girl Scouts and their leader came to Montevallo to see the Girl Scout Little House. We showed them the house and told them how we had certain articles for it. While refreshments of punch and cookies were being served we told them what we do in troop meeting and some of the good times we have. They were interested in the different kinds of uniforms we were wearing and we showed them some pictures which had been taken of us on hikes. After refreshments we took them to see the Boy Scout Cabin. We enjoyed their visit and hope they will come again.

BAPTIST CHURCH

Dr. Pearson will preach Sunday morning on "Jesus and Troubled Hearts." At the Sunday evening service he will speak on "The Rock of Ages." Sunday School meets at 9:45 a.m. and the Baptist Training Union at 6:45 p.m.

The State convention of the Baptist Student Union is meeting at Howard College in Birmingham this week end. Forty or fifty students from Alabama College will attend. A group of Alabama College girls will give a play on Saturday evening. Dr. Pearson and Dr. Riddle will lead conferences on Saturday.

College students this year will pay more than $158,000,000 for instructional fees at more than 1,500 colleges and universities in the United States where they are taught by approximately 110,000 faculty members.

Mrs. Johnny Greene (nee Dovie Lovelady) of Birmingham, visited in town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Appleton spent Tuesday in Birmingham.

Mrs. Lance Hubbard visited in Auburn and Montgomery Monday.

Guardian of Life and Health

A reserve of 44,000 Red Cross registered nurses stands ready to aid in preserving the life and health of the nation. Typical activity of Red Cross nurse is shown, working in clinic under doctor's supervision. Red Cross nurses are nation's reserve for Army, Navy and Government hospital service, and also to serve civilians in epidemic or disaster. The Red Cross Nursing Service is supported by members who join the Red Cross during Roll Call, November 11 to 30.

Red Cross Nurse Reserve at Peak

Disaster Service, Home Nursing, Health Education, Keep Thousands Busy

Washington.—The Red Cross reserve of registered nurses qualified for immediate duty is stronger than ever before, Miss Mary Beard, director of the American Red Cross nursing services, announced.

"We now have a first reserve of 15,000 unmarried nurses under 40 years of age available for duty with the Army, Navy or government nursing services and subject to call by the Red Cross for disaster work," she said. "This is 700 more than any previous first reserve registration."

Miss Beard pointed out that the increase has been gradual and that only registered nurses meeting rigid requirements of training and physical fitness are enrolled. All classes of nurse reservists, including nurses now employed by the Red Cross, bring the reserve corps total to 44,283. During the World War of 1914-18 the American Red Cross mustered nearly 20,000 nurses for duty with Army, Navy and Red Cross hospitals, at home and overseas.

"Maintenance of the Nurses Reserve is provided by our charter and is in line with Red Cross policies of prevention and preparedness, but the peacetime work of our nurses is equally important," Miss Beard said.

The director explained that more than 2,000 nurses, chiefly home hygiene and care of the sick instructors, were regularly engaged in visiting the sick, aiding physicians in examining school children, conducting inoculation programs to stamp out contagious illness, launching trial nursing services in out-of-the-way communities, and carrying on important health education work to qualify family groups to care for sickness at home.

All nurses who are needed for Red Cross nursing activities are drawn from the Red Cross reserve of qualified nurses, Miss Beard said.

Last year Red Cross public health nurses made more than one million visits on behalf of the sick and gave skilled care to 272,729 persons. The majority of Red Cross nursing services cover entire counties to include both rural areas and industrial centers where nursing help is scarce.

Last year, in schools and clinics, nurses cooperated with physicians in examining 595,575 children, and aided in the task of correcting defects. Children examined were enrolled for the most part in rural schools where this type of preventive service is rare. There are 655 Red Cross nurses engaged in this work in 477 communities.

In the field of health education, Red Cross nurses have instructed more than 1,000,000 family members since 1914 in how to care for the sick at home and have set new standards of hygiene for the family. Last year the Nursing Service held 4,505 classes in home hygiene and care of the sick and awarded certificates to 61,296 persons who passed examinations.

This service to the public is supported by the men and women who join as members of the Red Cross, through their local Chapters, during the Roll Call, November 11 to 30.

Few farmers realize it, but sweet potatoes have a tendency to "branch" off from the original pure strain so that eventually the original strain is lost. Lyle Brown, extension horticulturist at Auburn, says that every grower should select his seed in the field, choosing only potatoes from good hills. Later the potatoes should be culled when they are to be bedded.

Montevallo Wins Over Vincent Team

Montevallo High School played at Vincent on Friday, October 20. The two teams were well matched. Neither team threatened seriously to score until late in the third quarter, when Holsomback, Montevallo end, intercepted a Vincent lateral pass and was stopped on the Vincent five-yard line. A moment later the quarter ended.

The two teams changed ends of the field for the fourth quarter. On the first play, Dement plunged over for a touchdown. Montevallo failed to convert. There was no further score and the game ended with Montevallo leading 6-0.

Montevallo plays Clanton Friday at 1 p.m. in a game which promises to be a hot struggle because M. H. S. intends to avenge a defeat handed them last year by Clanton. Coach Varnell, who was formerly coach of the Clanton team, says, "The Montevallo boys must get this game."

Mr. Francis Killingsworth of Auburn spent last week end at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Olin Riser and Olin III of Alpine spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Reid.

Graves Sees War Bringing Farm-City Price Balance

"No Fear of Food Shortage Or Run-Away Prices," Declares Roosevelt Council Member

MONTGOMERY, Ala.—War in Europe will help restore the balance between farm and city prices and bring about more normal business and employment, former Governor Bibb Graves, a member of President Roosevelt's Agricultural Advisory Council, said here Wednesday on his return from Washington where he attended meetings of the group.

"This council, composed of growers, processors and distributors of farm products and representatives of labor and the general public, pledged its fullest cooperation to the President and the Secretary of Agriculture in meeting the situation created by the outbreak in Europe," Governor Graves said.

"All Americans want to keep this country out of war. We are confident that the United States will remain at peace but we recognize the difficulties which foreign wars present to our domestic economy. This council has concerned itself with these difficulties.

"The war in Europe will strengthen farm prices here, but consumers need have no fear of shortage or runaway prices. Such advances in farm prices as may occur will tend to restore the balance between farm and city prices and help to bring about normal business and employment.

In Better Position

"Furthermore, we are in a much better all-around position than we were at the outbreak of the last war," said Governor Graves who saw active service in the last war. "From farm to kitchen, the whole process of producing, processing and distributing has been greatly simplified and improved.

"It is our belief that the Department of Agriculture, with the full cooperation of the groups represented by this council, is the proper medium to deal with this agricultural situation.

"Whatever is done, must be done through voluntary means without regimentation. This should be directed toward securing and maintaining proper balance by means of fair price for farm products, fair wages for labor and reasonable profits for business.

"It should be emphasized that the prices of most farm products are still low, despite some recent increases, and that justice to agriculture demands that the prices of farm products be raised to their proper relationship with other prices and wages.

"In order to help carry out the objectives of this council and the department," he continued, "we recommended the permanent organization of the council and the establishment of the necessary committees to present facts about the agricultural situation to the public and to assist in drafting specific programs which may become necessary to meet developments."

Professor Martin

Montgomery and caused a host of bills to be introduced into the legislature.

Among the most important of the bills which passed were:

1. A bill to create revenue.

2. A bill providing for the reorganization of the Highway Department.

3. A measure establishing a Department of Finance. This was probably the most important single measure passed by the legislature. It established a modern purchasing and accounting system and provided that the head of the department should be appointed by the governor.

4. A measure providing for a Department of Industrial Relations.

5. A bill creating a Department of Conservation.

6. A bill creating a Department of Commerce.

Also, certain amendments were referred to the people.

The first of these called for the legislature to meet every two years. The second established an up-to-date probation and parole system.

The third made the use of voting machines legal in any county which wished to use them.

Professor Martin believes that Governor Dixon deserves a great deal of credit for the reforms which have already been brought about. However, he feels that the state still has a long battle ahead. Nothing has been done about elective officers. There are still too many agencies. The Legislative Reference Bill was defeated. The reapportionment plan failed. Cities should be given some kind of choice as to the government they have; there was no county reorganization. The problem of the accumulative poll tax is not settled. In spite of all these things which failed to pass, the speaker feels that a real reorganization program has been undertaken.

Professor Martin addressed his closing remarks particularly to members of the political science classes who were present and urged them to lay aside all prejudices, to face facts as they really are, and to take an active interest in affairs of government, for, he said, "You will have the kind of government you deserve. It will be as good as you require and as bad as you will tolerate."

Mr. and Mrs. John Selman of Troy spent the week end with Mrs. Selman's mother, Mrs. A. H. Watson.
